

From cookies to career mentoring and community service projects, Girl Scouts is building future women leaders who will discover, connect, and take action to make the world a better place. Girl Scouts offers girls – ages 5-17 – an opportunity to explore hundreds of programs, events, and resources to meet the diverse needs and interests of all girls.

Learn more about Girl Scouts and how to sign up by attending a member sign-up event or troop meeting. Bellevue Troop meetings: K-1st (Daisies): unknown at this time; 2nd -3rd grades (Brownies): unknown at this time; 4th – 6th Grades (Juniors): 2nd and 4th Tuesdays after school. A registration night will be held Oct 2nd from 5p to 7p at the park downtown in Bellevue.

Don't forget, Grants for Girls, our financial assistance program, is available for families in need.

If you are unable to attend, or you do not see one listed in your area at this time, please fill out this interest form and return it to the school office or contact Junior Girl Scout leader, Jodi Bracy at 269-763-2210
